

Miracles Are Seen In Light

Let me not close my eyes because of this.

("A Course in Miracles", Lesson 91)

Objective

To open our eyes to the possibility that miracles are everywhere,

We just need to let them get into our lives...

Pausing

If we are attentive and open to see even just some of the little miracles that take place around us all the time, we will experience a different quality to our lives.

Expanding

Now we are ready. So let's go... Choose 3 cards, at random or openly, and set them out on the chart in order. How can the cards help us answer the following questions?

Focus and action

Write down the main insights you have reached and your action plan: one for the next 24 hours, one for next week and one for the coming month.

Lots of love to you,
and believe - miracles are seen in light.

[2] What will help me see the miracles in my life?

My card:

[1] What is the miracle that is with me every moment of my life?

My card:

[3] What is the miracle that will illuminate my life right now?
